

For Immediate Use
August 12, 2014
GAAS PR 21-14

Media contact: Margaret Beck, AASA
919-406-8828
media@mema.org

Midwest Automotive Parts & Service Association
Announces 2013-2014 Scholarship Winners

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK, N.C. – The Midwest Automotive Parts & Service Association (MAPSA) is pleased to announce the recipients of its scholarship for the 2014-2015 academic year. The recipients are:

- Conner Kavanagh of Richwood, Ohio: attending Northwestern Ohio University , Lima, Ohio and receiving a $1000 award;
- Katie Washington of New Albany, Ohio: attending Ohio University, Athens, Ohio and receiving a $500 award;
- Julienne Childress of Springboro, Ohio: attending Chattanooga State, Chattanooga, Tenn. and receiving a $250 award.

Applicants for MAPSA 2014-2015 scholarships were taken through the automotive scholarship website, www.automotivescholarships.com.

“MAPSA is pleased to assist Conner, Katie and Julienne as they pursue their education,” said Gary Murdock, MAPSA president. “We are pleased to be a part of this effort to invest in the future of the automotive aftermarket industry.”

“The students selected for MAPSA scholarships exemplify the outstanding applications received this year through the online application process,” said Pete Kornafel, chairman of the GAAS Scholarship Committee. “Through the efforts of MAPSA and other regional associations, along with the supporters of the GAAS scholarship fund, we are able to assist many students pursuing their dreams of higher education.”

In addition to MAPSA, GAAS collaborates with these state associations and other automotive groups:

- Alliance of Automotive Service Providers of Minnesota (AASP-MN)
- Association of Diesel Specialists (ADS)
- Automotive Aftermarket Association Southeast (AAAS)
- Automotive Parts & Services Association (APSA)

- Automotive Parts and Service Association of Illinois (APSA of IL)
- California/Nevada/Arizona Automotive Wholesalers' Association (CAWA)
- Kentucky / Indiana Automotive Wholesalers Association (KIAWA)
- Michigan Automotive Parts Association (MAPA)
- Midwest Automotive Parts and Service Association (MAPSA)
- Mobile Air Conditioning Society (MACS)
- New York State Automotive Aftermarket Association (NYSAAA)
- Wisconsin Automotive Part Association (WAPA)

The following foundations and organizations also collaborate with GAAS to award scholarships:

- Auto Care Association
- Automotive Communication Council
- Breslow Foundation
- Dayco
- Gates Corporation
- Larry McCurdy Memorial Fund
- Leadership Development Network
- Michael Busch Memorial Fund
- Mitchell 1
- Multi Parts Supply
- National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence (ASE)
- Polk
- Standard Motor Products
- Stant Corporation
- University of the Aftermarket Foundation
- Women's Car Care Council (WB)

Additional scholarship funding comes from industry contributions provided by individuals, companies and foundations. Contributions can be made to the GAAS Scholarship Fund, c/o Susan Medick at the Auto Care Association, at 301-654-6664, or susan.medick@aftermarket.org.

About the GAAS Scholarship Program

The GAAS program is a joint professional education effort of the of the Alliance of State Automotive Aftermarket Associations (ASAAA), Auto Care Association, Automotive Industries Association (AIA) of Canada, Automotive Parts Remanufacturers Association (APRA), Automotive Service Association (ASA), Automotive Warehouse Distributors Association (AWDA), Motorist Assurance Program (MAP), Motor & Equipment Manufacturers Association (MEMA) and its light vehicle aftermarket division: Automotive Aftermarket Suppliers Association (AASA), Specialty Equipment Market Association (SEMA), Tire Industry Association (TIA) and University of the Aftermarket. Polk is the corporate sponsor of the Global Automotive Aftermarket Symposium. The event is made possible through the generous support of the University of the Aftermarket Foundation.

###

