

For Immediate Use

DATE, 2014

GAAS PR 24-14

Media contact: Margaret Beck, AASA

919-406-8828

media@mema.org

Kentucky/Indiana Automotive Wholesalers Association Education Foundation
Announces 2014 Scholarship Winners

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK, N.C. – KIAWA Education Foundation, Inc. (formerly known as The Kentucky/Indiana Automotive Wholesalers Association) is proud to announce the winners of their 2014 scholarships.

Zachary Hill of Danville, Ind. and Cameron Hernandez of Elizabethtown, Ky. were each awarded $1,000 scholarships for the 2014-2015 school year.

“The KIAWA Education Foundation congratulates Zachary and Cameron as they begin the journey of their automotive aftermarket career,” said Bill Garling, Chief Operating Officer of KIAWA. “We are happy to invest in the future of these bright individuals entering the aftermarket.”

The NACAT Education Foundation Larry Cotten Memorial Scholarship was created in memory of Larry Cotten, a NACAT charter member and former president. Cotten’s wife and family established the memorial scholarship following his death in an accident in 2005 to help pass his passion into the next generation of collision repair technicians.

In addition to the Kentucky/Indiana Automotive Wholesalers Association, GAAS collaborates with these state associations and other automotive groups:

- Alliance of Automotive Service Providers of Minnesota (AASP-MN)
- Association of Diesel Specialists (ADS)
- Automotive Aftermarket Association of the Carolinas and Tennessee (AAACT)
- Automotive Aftermarket Association Southeast (AAAS)
- Automotive Parts and Service Association
- California/Nevada/Arizona Automotive Wholesalers' Association (CAWA)
- Michigan Automotive Parts Association (MAPA)
- Midwest Automotive Parts and Service Association (MAPSA)
- Mobile Air Conditioning Society (MACS)
- North American Council of Automotive Teachers (NACAT) Education Foundation

- New York State Automotive Aftermarket Association (NYSAAA)
- Wisconsin Automotive Part Association (WAPA)

The following foundations and organizations also collaborate with GAAS to award scholarships:

- Auto Care Association
- Automotive Communication Council
- Breslow Foundation
- Dayco
- Gates Corporation
- Larry McCurdy Memorial Fund
- Leadership Development Network
- Michael Busch Memorial Fund
- Mitchell 1
- Multi Parts Supply
- National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence (ASE)
- Polk
- Standard Motor Products
- Stant Corporation
- University of the Aftermarket Foundation
- Women's Car Care Council (WB)

Additional scholarship funding comes from industry contributions provided by individuals, companies and foundations. Contributions can be made to the Scholarship Fund, c/o Susan Medick at the Auto Care Association, at 301-654-6664, or susan.medick@aftermarket.org.