

JOSEPH A. POMARANSKI

Vice President, North America Aftermarket Tenneco

Joe Pomaranski, vice president, North America aftermarket, is responsible for the company's aftermarket business in North America. Named to this role in July of 2008, Pomaranski has full responsibility for the aftermarket business including engineering, sales/marketing, finance, strategic planning and business development. Prior to assuming his current role, Pomaranski was vice president of sales, North America aftermarket.

He joined Tenneco in 1999 from Federal Mogul where he held the position of director of sales, special markets. Prior to that, he worked for Cooper Automotive as vice president of sales for the traditional and retail business. His career began with Champion Spark Plug where he held various positions from 1977 to 1998.

Pomaranski holds a B.S. degree in accounting from Salem College in Salem, West Virginia, and serves on several industry boards and committees.